Attendees' Favorites

Marcie Samuelson: "Is He Worthy" arranged by Dan Forest really captures the essence of Chris Tomlin's composition, but ensnares the blended-ness of Handel's "Worthy is the Lamb"... a LOVELY piece!

Travis Lowery: If I remember correctly, "Is He Worthy" was written by Andrew Peterson, but yes that Dan Forrest setting is AMAZING.

Stephany Herndon Nystrand: and for Dance ... "Seed to Sow".

Marcie Samuelson: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BepULKaIWXg&feature=youtu.be> a dance video from my dancers at church: Moving In Christ. "All He Says I Am" by Cody Carnes and Kari Job

Joan Estus FitzGerald: "He Never Failed Me Yet", was a favorite of another choir I directed.

Austen Wilson: @33:20 QUESTION: Have you ever directed a choir that did not take to "He Never Failed Me Yet"? I thought "He Never Failed Me Yet" would be a winner with the Youth Choir, but it was not.

Barbara Kelly Florida: The younger voices may not be able to handle the gospel style required. Another favorite song is "Northern Lights" by Ola Gjeilo.

- (Editor insert) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T2r7SqXkWZw> Sung by the National Youth Choir of Australia.
- Janice Wisinski: I also highly recommend the Chorister's Guild Choral Festival for children. I had the privilege of leading the children's choir at Northwood for four years, working with Stephanie Carson, and found this festival is truly a highlight for the children.
- Stephanie Carson: www.floridachoristers.org is the website for the Florida Chapter of Chorister's Guild. This next spring will be the 30th year. You can check their website (once it is updated) to see the selections we will learn for this year.
- Marcie Samuelson: Heather Sorenson has become a new favorite as well! "Until You Save the World" (with cello) is heart-wrenching and great for Tenebrae service!
- (Editor insert) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JDilSev1kIU> w/printed preview music <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=esWtu2KYCFU>

- Tom: A solo arrangement of "Arise My Soul" by Dan Forrest is available from Beckenhorst.
- (Editor insert) <https://www.beckenhorstpress.com/sacred-solos-of-dan-forrest-medium-voice/>
- Travis Lowery: I have to force myself to program music by composers other than Dan Forrest and Elaine Hagenberg.
- Marcie Samuelson: "I Believe" from Mark Miller. I cannot go a year without doing it at least once!
- (Editor insert) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lzsoeKHQg-c>
- Cynthia Pierce Prescott: "What Shall I bring to the Lord?" Robert Lau (no video found)

Barbara Kelly Florida: One of my favorites is “The Deep Love of Jesus” by Penny Rodriguez, which can be performed solo or SATB.

Kathy Toole: “From the Day You Were Born” - Joel & Russell Nagy - is a fabulous text for children to put in their hearts. I think it is Beckenhorst.

Joan Estus FitzGerald: Our church commissioned an anthem from Lloyd Larson, "May the Peace of God Dwell in You." Published by Lorenz. Very versatile. Beginning can be used as a benediction.
